With 48 strategically positioned air bags, the OTO CYBER Wave can deliver comprehensive air massage to the following areas:

Float in Relief

Besides the incline and recline of the backrest and leg--rests, the OTO CYBER Wave can also activate Zero Gravity positions. Zero Gravity is a recline position which mimics the posture of astronauts during lift--off on space missions. This position is designed to distribute weight effectively across the chair, allowing the maximum in stress relief. Some users experience a floating sensation of weightlessness in the Zero Gravity position. While in Zero Gravity, the massage experience is more intense.

Zero Gravity Position 1: lift your body off the ground to provide a massage angle that is more comfortable than typical massage chairs.

Zero Gravity Position 2: achieve a full Zero Gravity position that raises your lower body higher, so that you can experience a more intense massage.
